Two encouraging facts are indicated in these figures: (1) a net gain of 8 members; (2) an increase of 15 in the number of new members added this year compared with the year previous, when the total was 55.

Of the 617 members in the Club on November 30, 1917, 66 were non-resident, including 48 men and 18 women.

The occupations or chief interests of the 70 new members elected during the year are as follows: architects, 2; artist, 1; bankers, 4; booksellers and publishers, 4; business, 10; clergymen, 11; educators, 7; journalists, 4; lawyers, 6; naturalist, 1; physician, 1; social workers, 18; state official, 1.

Saturday Luncheon Speakers

The topics and chief speakers in connection with our Saturday luncheons show the usual wide range of previous years. Although any classification is necessarily quite broadly made, the following list will serve as a reminder:

Problems of the War: President E. Griffith Jones of the United Independent College of Bradford, England, presented Britain's claim to the moral support of America in this world crisis. Addresses were made by Rev. Willard L. Sperry and Mr. G. W. Anderson, now interstate commerce commissioner, on the duty of America to enter the war. Mr. J. Walter Smith, United States correspondent of the London Times discussed the relation of the United States to England. Professor Ralph B. Perry of Harvard and Mr. George W. Nasmyth discussed the problems of universal military service in a democracy. Rev. T. W. Davidson of Montreal told of the Canadian sacrifice in the war. At the luncheon immediately following the declaration of war the question, "What is your responsibility and mine?" was discussed by Professor H. W. Tyler, Mr. Philip Davis, Rev. S. M. Crothers, Rev. H. W. Pinkham, and Rev. C. W. Wendte — all members of the Club.

At four different luncheons conditions in Russia have been presented. Rev. Frederick B. Haggard, a Baptist minister; Mr. Herman Bernstein of New York, editor of the "American Jew"; Mr. Morris G. Hindus, a Russian graduate student at Harvard; Mr. A. J. Sack, director of the Russian information bureau in New York; Mr. James Duncan, member of the United States commission to Russia; Mr. F. J. Bagocius, a Lithuanian attorney in Boston; and Mr. George M. Day, a Y. M. C. A. secretary working in the prison camps in Russia, have all contributed their varied experience and special knowledge of the confused Russian situation.

The struggles and needs of Italy have been vividly described by Mr. Vittorio Orlandini. The needs of the United States government in the matter of efficiency have been discussed by Mr. Frederick A. Cleveland, chairman of the efficiency and economy board under President Taft, and by Messrs. Henry P. Kendall, Edward A. Filene, and Harlan P. Kelsey, Club members now assisting the government in various ways. The needs of the soldier in relation to the civilian community were described by Mr. Joseph Lee and Mr. Ray S. Hubbard of the war camp community committee, and by Lieutenant Colonel H. F. Dalton from Camp Devens and Captain Ralph Harrison of the Provost Guard, Boston. Mr. Carl S. Vrooman, assistant secretary of Agriculture interpreted the meaning of true patriotism for the times. The needs and methods of food conservation have been presented by Professor T. N. Carver of Harvard, Dean Sarah L. Arnold of Simmons College, Mr. Reginald W. Bird of the public safety committee in Massachusetts and Mr. Frank V. Thompson in charge of the organization of high school boys for farm work.

Ethical and Religious Questions: The Club has listened to distinguished addresses by Mr. Winston Churchill, the novelist, on the religious confusion of today, and at the same luncheon by Mrs. Gertrude Atherton, also a novelist, on the religious revival in France. One luncheon program was given up to a discussion of the new movement in religious education, by Professor Walter S. Athearn of Boston University, Miss Margaret Slattery, and Professor Henry W. Holmes of Harvard. The influence of Luther was presented by President A. C. McGiffert of Union Theological Seminary, and Professor John E. Sexton of St. John's Seminary, Brighton, and further discussed by Rev. William H. Van Allen and Professor Daniel Evans. The extent and significance of the nation-wide prohibition movement was described by Mr. Robert A. Woods of the South End House, and Mr. A. J. Davis, secretary of the anti-saloon league. Dr. S. M. Crothers gave the Club a Christmas message at the luncheon preceding Christmas.

Educational matters: Mr. William G. Willcox, President of the Board of Education in New York City, described the introduction of the Gary system in New York schools. Mr. Edward Howard Griggs spoke on democracy and education. The public service of the kindergarten was presented by a group of women distinguished in the service of the schools in various sections of the country — Miss Catharine R. Watkins, Miss Luella Palmer, Miss M. Farris, Miss Elizabeth Woodward, and Mrs. M. B. Langzettel. The right of free speech in the universities was discussed by Professor J. McKeen Cattell of Columbia University and Professor H. W. Tyler of the Institute of Technology. President Edward Ware of Atlanta University and Professor J. N. Haskell of Fisk University have spoken on the progress of the negro and his relation to the present war.

Social and Economic Questions: Colonel Thomas Mott Osborne, formerly warden of Sing Sing, and Colonel C. B. Adams, prison commissioner of Massachusetts, have discussed new methods of handling prisoners. Miss Minerva Keppel from one of the Fall River cotton mills described conditions surrounding the working girl in the cotton mills. Mr. Owen R. Lovejoy of the National Child Labor Committee discussed the working of the child labor law. Rev.

Samuel S. Marquis, director of the welfare work in connection with the Ford Motor Company in Detroit, explained the operation of the Ford welfare methods and was followed in discussion by Dr. Luther H. Gulick and Dr. Harvey W. Wiley. Mr. C. W. Price, engaged in the national organization of safety devices in factories, told of improved conditions in industries. The reasons for and against health insurance were presented by Mr. Henry Sterling, secretary of the Massachusetts Homestead Commission, Dr. A. N. Broughton, Miss Mary Beard, superintendent of the Instructive District Nursing Association, and Mr. Michael M. Davis of the Boston dispensary. Mr. Edmund Mitchell, a journalist of Los Angeles, spoke earnestly on the coming social revolution and Mr. John D. Barry of the San Francisco Bulletin told of the significance of the Mooney case. Dr. Augusta F. Bronner, assistant in the Boston juvenile court, discussed the reasons for mal-adjustments among juveniles.

Matters of art and literature: The Club has heard Mr. Montrose J. Moses describe the progress of American drama and has listened to a discussion of the new developments in poetry by Mr. W. S. B. Braithwaite, with original poems recited by three modern poets, — Vachell Lindsey, Will A. Bradley and Robert E. Hillyer. The subject of American music was presented by Professor Philip Greeley Clapp of Dartmouth, and Professor Leo R. Lewis of Tufts College. Mr. Herbert F. Jenkins of Little, Brown and Co., publisher, Mr. W. B. Clarke, bookseller, and Mr. Arthur Stanwood Pier, author, discussed the making and selling of books. Mr. Wilson Follett of Brown University described some modern tendencies in English literature. The Club has also had the pleasure of listening to folk songs by the Fuller Sisters, both at a luncheon and at an evening concert; violin music by Miss Katharine Kemp Stillings and negro melodies by the Fisk Jubilee Quartet. As in past years, Mr. Denis McCarthy has recited his own poems.

Miscellaneous matters: The description of Siam and the Siamese by Professor J. M. Westengard and Mr. Mahidol Songkla, half-brother of the King of Siam, interested the Club deeply. Ex-Governor David I. Walsh discussed some of the changes needed in the constitution of Massachusetts to be brought about through the constitutional convention. Mr. Ralph Adams Cram of the Boston City Planning Board gave an illustrated talk on the future planning of Boston. Mr. Roger W. Babson described conditions in Mexico. Professor William Frederic Bade of California, literary executor of John Muir, and Mr. Winthrop Packard discussed nature as a social asset. Mr. George P. Morris and Mr. Henry T. Bailey, newly elected President and Vice-President of the Club, spoke at the first luncheon in January on some of the ideals still to be realized. Rev. Charles F. Dole was cordially welcomed back from his year in Hawaii and gave the Club his impressions of the Pacific Islands.

Other Club Gatherings

Three important Club gatherings have been held other than the luncheons. The first of these was a special reception to Mr. Frank B. Sanborn of Concord. He spoke freely and genially of his reminiscences of old Concord authors. His death a few weeks later gave special significance to this reception.

A special Club dinner was arranged, under the auspices of the Immigration Committee, with the general subject, "The Americanization of the immigrant through preparation for naturalization." The speakers were: Rev. Harry Levi of Temple Israel, Mr. Eldon B. Keith, a shoe manufacturer from Brockton, Mr. Guy D. Gold, immigration secretary for the Y. M. C. A., Mr. Walter I. Hamilton, and Mr. Denis A. McCarthy.

For the second successive year the Drama Committee organized a social evening called "A Frolic." The program consisted of a fantasy and a short play given by players from the South End House; two scenes from the dramatization of Isaiah arranged by Mrs. John P. Whitman and acted by Mr. and Mrs. Whitman with players from the Elizabeth Peabody House; and an exhibition of a series of silhouettes of members of the Twentieth Century Club, prepared by Mr. William F. Macy.

Use of the Club House

The record of last year in the service rendered by the Club House to committees and organizations of many kinds has been surpassed this year. The number of such groups is now nearly a hundred. The list, roughly classified, is as follows:

Clubs — Appalachian Mountain Club, Apollo Club, Booksellers' Association, Business Women's Club, Graduate Club of the School for Social Workers, Monday Evening Club, New England Botanical Club, Cooking Class of the Women's City Club, Schoolmasters Club.

Executive Committees — The directors or executive committees of the Society for the Advancement of Colored People, the Boston Children's Aid Society, the Pageant of "Caliban," the City History Club, the Massachusetts Christian Endeavor Union, the Massachusetts Conference of Charities, the Massachusetts Directors of District Nurses, the Women's Patriotic League and the Travelers' Aid Society, the Planning Board of the Massachusetts State Federation of Womens Clubs, the Committee on Public Amusements, the Red Stocking Committee, the Committee on a Memorial to Mrs. Quincy A. Shaw and a Committee on Health Insurance.

Civic Organizations — American Free Trade League, Arts and Crafts Society, American Proportional Representation League, Anti-Imperialist League, Associated Charities Training Class, Association to Abolish War, Boston Equal Suffrage

Association, Consumers League, High School Assistants Association, Home Saving Society, Hyatt Memorial Association, Fellowship of Reconciliation, League for Progressive Democracy, League for Preventive Work, Massachusetts Civic League, Massachusetts Forestry Association, Massachusetts Association of Women Workers, Massachusetts Society of Mental Hygiene, New England Womens Press Association, New Hampshire Forestry Association, Womens Auxiliary of the National Civic Federation and of the Massachusetts Civil Service Reform League, Public School Association, Massachusetts Single Tax League, Society for Helping Destitute Mothers and Infants, Society for the Relief and Control of Tuberculosis, Womens Industrial Civic and Suffrage League.

Conferences — Boston Committee on Training Camp Activities, Boston Principals, Conference on Illegitimacy, Conference on Immigration, Conference on Moral Education, Special Conference on Playgrounds, Legislative Conference of the Massachusetts Civic League.

Miscellaneous — Luncheons given by the state to the Probation officers and to the Almshouse visitors, Alumni of Acadia College, American Institute of Instruction, Baptist Choral Society, Boy Scouts, Circolo Italo-Americano, a dinner to the staff of the Congregationalist, a dinner to Dr. J. Sliupas, a distinguished Lithuanian, a series of luncheons managed by the Women's Auxiliary of the G. A. R., the Garland Alumnae, Girls Trade Education League, Harvard Alumni Chorus, Mr. Hutchins' piano recital, Juniper Point Village Improvement Society, a meeting of school teachers in the interest of the Liberty Loan, Lincolnville Association, Massachusetts Training Schools, luncheons for the workers in the "drive" for the Y. M. C. A. fund, a gathering of graduates of the Mechanic Arts High School, New England Association of Teachers of English, Northfield League, Reunion of North End School Centres, Public Service Civil Engineers Association, a reception to foreign college students given by the Women's Peace Party, Shakespeare Guild, Sons and Daughters of Kittery, a class for the study of Spanish, Private School Association, Teachers School of Science Association, a gathering of Unitarian Ministers, and a gathering of delegates from all the college Christian Associations.

Club Members in War Service

If specific and important civilian service, chiefly unpaid, entitles the Club to a service flag then at least thirty stars could rightly appear thereon. While the average age of Club members precludes much direct participation in the ranks of the Army or Navy, the Club counts among its members, actively in the war, Dr. E. C. Streeter, now in hospital work in France; Lieutenant C. P. Howard of the National Army; Dr. A. B. Emmons, a Captain in the National Army; Dr. A. K. Stone, contract surgeon for tuberculosis cases, and Dr. W. A. Paul, medical examiner; Rev. H. G. Ives serving with a regiment in Canada and Miss Sara C. Parsons, head nurse of the Massachusetts General Hospital Unit in France. Major Arthur D. Hill is serving with the Judge Advocate General section of the Officers Reserve Corps.

Club members now officials of the Government are—Mr. George W. Anderson, Interstate Commerce Commissioner; Mr. George Holden Tinkham, Congressman; Mr. Carl S. Vrooman, Assistant Secretary of Agriculture; Mr. James P. Munroe, Chairman of the National Vocational Education Board; Mr. Joseph Lee, member of the Committee on Training Camp Activities, co-operating with the War Department; Mr. Fred R. Johnson, a local agent for the War Camp Community service; Messrs. Guy D. Gold, Meyer Bloomfield and Philip Davis working in connection with the labor problems of the War Department; Mr. Harlan P. Kelsey, serving in the construction and laying out of army cantonments; Mr. Edward F. Stevens as a hospital architect; Professor T. N. Carver, assisting the Department of Agriculture; Mr. Stanley King, Mr. Henry P. Kendall and Mr. A. Lincoln Filene, serving in various activities of the War Department. Mr. Edward A. Filene has assisted the Government as a representative of the National Chamber of Commerce. Miss Frances Stern has been serving with Mr. Hoover in Washington. Mrs. Samuel

W. McCall, Dean Sarah L. Arnold and Mrs. William Lowell Putnam have given distinguished service in many ways. Miss Sarah Lawrence is in charge of the volunteer relief corps of the Red Cross. Mr. Victor J. Loring, chairman of the Legal advisory Board connected with the Draft, Mr. J. K. Allen in connection with the publicity work for the Liberty Bonds, and many other club members have been called upon for special assistance. Dr. DeWitt G. Wilcox and Mr. C. C. Carstens were among the first to go to the relief of Halifax. Rev. F. I. Paradise is giving professional service in England.

Probably every member of the Club has found the opportunity for some form of direct assistance in this war emergency: many members are among those who are leading in public service.

In addition to this volume of personal service the Club House has been placed at the disposal of distinctly "War Work" without rental charge. The Women's Patriotic League and the Committee on Training Camp Activities held regular meetings here. The Surgical Dressings Committee has stored material here. The Club has furnished the opportunity for meetings in the interest of the Liberty Bond Sale and the Y. M. C. A. Drive.

Plans are now in progress for some service to be rendered on Saturday evenings for soldiers and sailors. Club members have contributed funds to be used for such service and have sent a liberal supply of fruit for men in quarantine at Camp Devens.

Library

Miss Mary P. Ingalls, assistant librarian, entered the service of the Women's Patriotic League on October first, and is now in charge of a Girls' Club in Portsmouth, New Hampshire.

The Librarian reports at the close of the year a collection of 4,000 books, of which over 2,600 belong to the Club. At this date 200 books are in circulation among the members. About one-half the members of the Club have made use of the Library during the past twelve months. The special values of the Library are apparent in the accessibility of its books and in the increase of the working literature of subjects that are of immediate interest. The Librarian is always ready to give personal assistance and all Club members are urged to take advantage of the privileges afforded.

Personal Items

It is with much regret that the death of Mrs. Margery W. Hall is recorded. For nearly sixteen years she served the Club faithfully and conscientiously as assistant to the Secretary. All who came in intimate contact with her appreciate the kindly service which she was ever ready to render.

On January first, Rev. Charles F. Dole retired from the presidency of the Club after a distinguished service of 14 years, and was succeeded by Mr. George P. Morris. At the last annual meeting the Club established the office of Vice-President and elected Mr. Henry T. Bailey as the first incumbent. Mr. Bailey was compelled to resign this office in August, owing to his removal to Cleveland to become Dean of the Cleveland School of Art.

The Secretary of the Club has been given permission by the Council to bring the work of the New England Committee of Armenian and Syrian Relief, of which he is both Secretary and Treasurer, to the Club as headquarters. In return for this privilege, rent free, the Relief Committee will share in the salary of the Secretary's assistant.

In General

The Club faces the new year with steady confidence in the service which it is able to render. There is greater, rather than less, need for the type of discussion which is possible here. Groups of thoughtful men and women are becoming more numerous both in the United States and in other countries. The world's problems although overwhelming in number are, nevertheless, being faced with more intelligence and determination. It is the duty as well as the privilege of this Club to perform with increasing determination the service which it was founded to render, namely — to bring men and women who embody ideals and achieve large results into direct contact with each other, and to be a stimulus to all who regard life as an opportunity for productive service.
